$235,000 Addition To Antioch Grade School To Be Dedicated Oct. 3

Board Is Able to Finish 12 Rooms Instead of 8 on Bond Issue Money

Dedication of the new $235,000 addition to the Antioch Grade School will take place at an open house from 2 to 5 p. m. Sunday, Oct. 3.

W. C. Petty, county school superintendent, will give the dedication address at 3 p. m. in the school auditorium. Before and after the program the visitors will have opportunity to inspect the new 12-room addition, Supt. Richard Whitacre said.

The new addition is entirely occupied as the result of an increase of 95 pupils this year, bringing the attendance up to 588 as of yesterday.

The board of education originally planned to complete eight classrooms and leave four rooms in the English-type basement only semi-finished.

Because of the low bids the board was able to finish the entire structure.

"We put in a flooring and added unit ventilators, sinks and all utilities quite easily in the basement floor, outfitting the four rooms the same as those on the upper floors, and with the money we had left," Supt. Whitacre explained.

All of the regular classes are now housed in the newer building. The old building which faces Main st. is used for vocal and instrumental music instruction.

Music instructor George Olisar has formed a junior band in addition to a senior band now that the room is available.

Two rooms in the old building are still available for further expansion of the school for use as classrooms.

Girl Scout Council To Meet at Antioch Scout House Sept. 23

The first full meeting of the Lakeside Girl Scout Council will be held at 8 p. m. Thursday, Sept. 23, in the Antioch Scout House.

It will be an important meeting because plans will be made for the year. Also, there will be election of officers, and revisions in the by-laws.

Leaders are to notify their co-leaders, and troop committee members to attend.

Women interested in joining the organization are also urged to attend, as the need for troop officials is keenly felt this year.

Plan Training Courses

The Lakeside G. S. Council and the Libertyville G. S. Council are offering a basic training course for present and prospective leaders.

The first meeting will be at 8 p. m. Monday, Sept. 27 in the Girl Scout room of the Police Station on Cook ave., Libertyville.

The meetings will be held on Monday and Wednesday evenings, two hours in length, and alternating each week between Round Lake and Libertyville.

The training course has been revised this year according to the new G. S. Handbook, and added to the course will be one session of training for troop committee members.

Anyone wishing to take the course may write to or call Mrs. R. H. Conyers, 1429 Lotus Drive, Round Lake, Ill., Phone R. L. 6-1422, or Mrs. P. H. Lash, Oak Springs Lane, Rte. 1, Libertyville, Ill., phone LI-2-3081.

Enrollments in Music Set New Records at Antioch High School

A record number of students are enrolled in the music courses at Antioch Township High School this year states Louis Chenette, music director.

Over 150 students are enrolled in music activities. This means that one out of three students at Antioch are studying music.

Music opportunities provided for the students are band, a cappella choir, girls glee club and boys glee club. Students are encouraged to participate in solo and ensemble work.

Time was taken from rehearsals this week to elect officers for the different music organizations. Those elected are:

A cappella choir—Judy Romer, president; Milti Wolff, secretary; Donald Cardiff and Bob Terry, librarians.

Girls Glee club—Joan Mair, president; Karen Rentner, secretary; Rose Ellen Furlan and Barbara Helligenthal, librarians.

Band—David Cain, president; Leonard McCord, secretary; Robert Cain and Paul Mattson, librarians; Elmer Oelkers and Jay Cribb, custodians.

Board to Open Bids On Broadway Paving At Meeting Tuesday

In a special meeting called for Tuesday evening, the Antioch village board will open bids on the improvement of Broadway from Lake to Orchard sts.

Curbs and gutters will be installed and the paving made similar to the new pavement on Orchard st. Payment will be made through motor fuel tax funds.

With the paving of Broadway on which the Antioch Rescue Squad now faces, there will be opportunity for business expansion through the construction of new business buildings facing that street.

Sequoias Open Season At Wilmot Tomorrow In Non-Conference Tilt

Many Veterans in Line-up; Sophs to Meet Central Monday Night

Antioch High's varsity football team will open the season tomorrow (Friday) night against Wilmot High on the Wisconsin team's field starting at 8:30 D.S.T.

A tight game is expected as Wilmot has many returning veterans and should answer some questions, Coach Paul Kessenich says, and too, solve some problems so that the team will be ready for the conference opener Saturday, Sept. 25 when the Grant Bulldogs come to Antioch.

The probable starting lineup for Antioch will be:

Harry Lindgren, L. E.; Fred Clarke or Jim Bown, L. T.; Allen Massopust, L. G.; Paul Mattson, C.; Paul Eckert, R. G.; Jim McMillen, R. T.; Ben Floyd, R. E.; Warren Brownlee, Q. B.; William Layton or Roy Ballwanz, L. H.; Bill Gallagher, R. H.; Bill Blake, F. B.

Other boys sure to see action are Jack Lawrence, Harve Strametz, Jim Kreiger, and Charles Behrendt. An attempt will be made to try as many of the squad as possible to see them under game conditions, Coach Kessenich said.

Out to Win Center Title

Finishing second in the Northwest Conference last year the Sequoias are out to take the title this year although they are fearful of Glenbrook and Palatine.

"The squad is larger than usual this year and should provide us with more depth," said Kessenich. "We have a fairly fast club and naturally will be shooting for the top."

Ten lettermen were lost last June, but nine others are returning and from the underclassmen team there are 14 promising recruits who can be added to the varsity players who just missed earning their letters last year.

Sophs Play Here Monday

Fire Destroys Trailer, Two Hunting Dogs, at Deer Lake Club Site

Two fine hunting dogs were destroyed in a house trailer that burned at the Sportsmen's Club on the south shore of Deer Lake at 9:45 p. m. Saturday.

The animals, trailer and much sporting equipment belonged to H. T. Eaton, proprietor of the Yellow Cab Co., in Waukegan.

Eaton placed the loss of the trailer at $1,000 and Fire Chief Edgar Simonson after being told the nature of the contents, estimated the total loss at $3,000.

How the blaze started is not known.

Borovicka to Exhibit Antique Car in N. Y.

After winning a first prize at the Antique Auto Club of America's show at Elkhart Lake, Wis., Sunday with his 1932 Leland-Lincoln sports coupe, George Borovicka, local druggist set out to win new laurels in the national show at Watkins Glen, N. Y., Tuesday.

Borovicka will show his car in competition tomorrow in the national event known as "The American Concourse of Elegance."

The coupe won first prize at the Illinois State Fair.

Harlem Globe Trotters To Perform in Antioch Thursday, October 21

Famed Team of Negro Players to Stage Benefit for Local Clubs

The famous Harlem Globe Trotters are coming to Antioch. Through efforts of the Lake Villa Men's Club and the Antioch Lions Club the basketball team of colored players that has excited the entire world will plan an exhibition game at the Antioch High School the evening of Oct. 21.

Receipts from the event will be divided between the Lake Villa and Antioch organizations, the Lake Villa Men's Club using its money to finance a hot lunch program for school children and the Lions earmarking their money for an electrical football score-board for the Antioch High School.

The Globe Trotters will play a team of college stars from the Chicago area.

Dyche and Goose Tatum of the first team (there are several teams in the famous squad) absolutely will be here, their manager announced. Tatum is the giant who can hold a basketball suspended in one hand.

The Harlem Globe Trotters are a sell-out anywhere they go and their travels are not only over the United States and Canada but the Orient and Europe as well.

Walter Curtis, Antioch Lions Club member, who will be in charge of the event locally, says that the entertainment is not so much the competition they afford other teams; but in the cleverness in which they handle the ball, clowning at times, and then executing bewildering passwork at others.

Adult Evening School Registration Sept. 30 at Antioch High School

An adult evening school program will again be made available to the citizens of the Antioch community by the Antioch High School Board of Education.

Registration for adult evening school will take place at the Antioch Township High School at 8 p. m. Thursday, Sept. 30. After a general meeting in the auditorium prospective registrants will meet with the various instructors to determine the best night for the meeting of the class. The registration fee of $10.00 per subject will be paid at this time.

Each class will be two hours in length and 10 students must enroll in a subject to organize a class.

Melvin Stillson will again teach general woodworking. Robert Lambert will conduct a class in craft metals if enough people desire it.

Warren Polley and Eileen Schutte will organize commercial classes in typing and shorthand. The home economics class will be taught by Veva Buchholz.

An art class based on fundamentals applicable to the beginner and more advanced students will be taught by John Scott, a teacher at Allendale school. English will be taught if there is enough interest in a course that presents a review of basic grammatical principles for practical use, a study of parts of speech, sentence usage, oral drills and correction of common errors.

The community band, under the direction of Louis Chenette, is looking for adults who are interested in instrumental music. The band recently concluded a fine summer program and at the present time the organization is making plans for a minstrel show.

Other courses in addition to the above will be organized if ten or more persons desire it and if an instructor can be found.

District Meeting of Legion Here Tomorrow

Representatives of 22 posts of the American Legion in Lake County which comprises Dist. 10, are expected to be in Antioch tomorrow evening for the district meeting at which the Antioch post will be host.

Antioch has the distinction of entertaining the first district meeting since the election of the new officers, according to Cmdr. Dan Lightsey.

Lions Hear Speeches By Experts on Swim Pools, and Coaches

The various kinds of swimming pools and how they are maintained and operated were described to the Antioch Lions Club members Monday evening at Smart's Country House by Thomas Carlson, superintendent of Adler Park at Libertyville.

The talk served as background for the contemplated project of the Lions Club to secure a swimming pool for Antioch.

Lee K. Bailey, member of the Adler Park board, added to the wealth of information given by Carlson by describing the operations of the park itself.

Also on the program were Athletic Director Warren Polley, Coach Richard Scott and Coach Paul Kessenich of the Antioch Township High School. Coach Scott said that with most of the lettermen returning, Antioch as a conference winner in basketball should do equally as well this winter.

Coach Kessenich said that the football team will have a number of good players returning this year and should make a good showing. He said that the varsity will profit in the future through the heavier schedule for the underclassmen, which will give them experience and confidence for their turn on the high school's top team. He exhibited a sample of the outfit worn by football players.

Director Polley discussed the athletic program in general.

Grass Lake Restricted For Duck Hunting By New Game Reserve

There will be less area for duck hunting on Grass lake at the opening of the season Oct. 22 as the result of the Conservation Department's decision to close off 700 of the 900 acres it purchased last year.

At the same time the remaining 200 acres will be unrestricted now that it is public property and the blinds cannot be reserved, it is said.

Many new blinds are going up, however, and the only recourse the hunter has in event of someone else gets there first is to tear it down.

Hunters say that after the first volley of shots the ducks will take refuge in the reserved area and hunting will be over.

The line that separates the preserve from the open area extends from the east side of the three houses north past Horse Shoe Bay, Diver Hole, One-Eye Conolly Point, past Hackberry Bay to Fence Hole.

This leaves the area around Grass Island and Bauer's Bay open for hunting.

The Conservation Department headed by Glen Palmer, purchased 900 acres last year for a game preserve despite the fact that the state already had 4,000 acreage suitable for this purpose. This caused much complaint and the hunters in the Antioch area are still angry over the matter.

Lake Villa Township Levy

Lake Villa township, one of the four last townships to file its report of appropriations and levies to the county tax assessment department appropriated $12,236 for the corporate fund, $11,000 for the poor fund, $6,145.07 for the library fund, a total of $29,381.07. The township levied $10,500 for the corporate fund, $9,000 for the poor fund, and $6,125 for the library fund, a total of $35,625.

Antioch Dollars Days To Be On October 1, 2 Business Men Decide

3rd Annual Sale to Be Bigger Than Ever According to C. of C. Plans

There will be Dollar Days in Antioch Oct. 1 and 2.

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce at its meeting Monday chose the first Friday and Saturday in October as the dates of its annual event in which bargains featuring the $1 price will be offered by merchants.

Leroy Gerke of the Western Tire Auto Store, who is serving as the chairman of Dollar Days, has his committee already at work contacting merchants in effort to promote an attractive array of goods.

"We don't want off season or damaged goods for this sale," said one of the merchants interested in this event. "We haven't done it in the past and we don't want to start it. We want to keep the confidence of our customers."

The high standard of Dollar Days in the past two years has earned Antioch a good reputation. An increasing number of people from an ever wider area has been attracted.

George Borovicka, druggist, said that he intends to have some free entertainment for the children on Saturday, but will not announce what it is until he returns from a trip to New York.

It is expected by the Chamber of Commerce that a larger number of merchants will participate in the sale this year than last year.

Cong. Church, Meek To Speak October 10 At Libertyville School

The Township Republican Women of Lake County will hold their first important meeting of the fall season at 2:30 p. m. Sunday, Oct. 10 in the new Libertyville-Fremont Township High school. This meeting will be open to men and women.

Congresswoman Marguerite Stitt Church, Joseph T. Meek, Republican candidate for the Senate, and State Senator Robert McClory will be the speakers. Mrs. Church always can be depended upon to present fearlessly the problems facing the country, and undoubtedly the audience will become better acquainted with Mr. Meek's viewpoints and his stand on vital problems. Mr. McClory's statement on the Blue Ball reapportionment amendment should interest everyone.

This meeting also will open a drive for new members, and it is hoped that any woman interested in joining the organization with its varied political activities as well as the social and educational opportunities offered, will get in touch with Mrs. Richard Seyfarth, Antioch 121W.

He then came to Antioch and operated a farm on State Line rd. until 1943. He moved to Kenosha and from 1947 to 1951 he operated a restaurant. In 1951 he retired and moved to the Lake Villa residence where his death occurred.

Oil Down on the Farm

American farmers work only six per cent of the world's tillable land. Yet they produce 45 per cent of the world's meat, 65 per cent of its corn, and similarly high proportions of other basic foods.

So outstanding a record is the result of various factors. One is the progress made in scientific land conservation and utilization. Another is the superbly efficient and economical machinery by the farm equipment industry. And another is something that every American uses every day in one form or another—oil.

The farmer is the world's largest user of trucks and tractors. He commands more mechanical horsepower than is used in all the rest of industry—but he'd have none at all if it weren't for gasoline and lubricants. To put the situation another way, a generation ago each farm worker had about 2.2 horsepower at his command. Now he has some 50 horsepower—and oil is the fodder that makes those particular horses go.

And power doesn't tell the whole story of oil's work in agriculture. Loss and damage from weeds, insects and plant diseases is very heavy on the farm, running into the billions annually. This waste has been materially reduced in late years through the use of sprays and dusts which are derived from oil, and are called petrochemicals. Agriculturally-derived fertilizers are other important farm tools.

Next October, Oil Progress Week will be observed. The achievements the week is to commemorate have been beneficially touched us all—and some of the greatest of them have been in agricultural fields.

The Truth About "Partnership"

One of the best ideas developed by this Administration has been the "partnership" plan of electric power development. But it has been widely misrepresented.

Partnership does not mean the end of public power. It does not mean that great resources will be "given away" to ruthless private interests and exploitation. It does mean, to the contrary, that the federal government, state and local government, and private enterprise will work together to develop needed projects in the quickest possible time and at the lowest possible cost—to the benefit of every consumer of the power. It means that important new sources of tax revenue will become available for government on all levels. And the work will be done under regulations, laws and contracts which will fully protect the interest of all concerned, and make exploitation of the public impossible.

It is a function of government to control floods and reclaim land. Electric power is a by-product of such operations. But it is not a function of government to go into the commercial power business—any more than it is a function of government to provide us with any other commercial service or commodity. Under partnership, regulated private enterprise will do jobs which it is superbly fitted to do—and which the past socialist mania has prevented it from doing. The people will get power at the lowest practical price. And the public treasuries will get tax money they sorely need.

Progress Against Handicaps

People in the United States enjoy the greatest retail service in the world. It is easy to see why after reading examples of regulations under which Western European retailers live, as described by David Carson of the School of Retailing, University of Pittsburgh.

In the Netherlands a store keeper has to get approval of local Chambers of Commerce before opening a store. In Norway he must notify the police if he plans to advertise a clearance sale, other than the two seasonal clearances permitted by law. In West Germany stores are permitted to give away only souvenirs that bear promotional messages, and they are prohibited by law from advertising the event.

In Switzerland, in 1933 to 1945, that country prohibited establishment of new department and variety stores. A discriminatory tax against large stores has been in effect since 1940, varying on gross receipts from 1/4 of 1 per cent on cooperatives and specialty stores to 2 1/2 per cent for department and 4 per cent for variety stores.

In spite of it all, however, Mr. Carson says new developments are taking place because "of the increasingly closer integration of the peoples of the free world." But there can be little question that the government regulations and controls are slowing progress.

The United States has seen political agitation against chain stores under the guise of helping independents. Fortunately, both for consumers and independents, such legislation was killed and retailing forged ahead in all its branches, as in no other nation.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Boiled down, I say a good diagnosis of our U. S. A. prime ailments could be summed up as a state of "Confusion blended with speed." We tear around as if we were going some place. On the highways we run into and over some 100 or 200 persons per 24 hours. The only thing we accomplish by such speed is to assist the business of the Undertaking trade. We hop a plane for Europe, Asia, and where have you, where the striped pants boys with their pea and 3 shells send us home to ponder on what happened or how—and replenish our billfold.

This country is all right—a grand country, I say—but we don't seem to savvy our destination—just where we are headed. We need but a hint and we take off with a satchel full of cash to fix it. And on our backs we find we had 500,000 or a million free-wheeling, well fed "experts" who say pretty soon everything will be jake.

I am not against the Govt.—any Govt.—but our Govt. is not showing enough of ruggedness or thriftiness or 1776 verities that it must soon show. We need a slowing down—we cannot read the signs—they are only a blur. A national mortician lurks out yonder—not too terribly far out yonder.

Yours with the low down.

School Buses Now on Highways, So Watch Stop Signals When You Meet Them Driving

If you meet a school bus while driving, keep in mind that state laws require specific safety steps, Chas. M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor Club, warns motorists in Illinois and Indiana.

"Failure to stop when meeting a bus which is discharging or receiving passengers can result in arrest," Hayes added. "Numerous motorists are not aware that they must also stop for school buses on the opposite side of the roadway on which they are traveling."

"Now that school is opening, thousands of school children will be exposed to this traffic hazard daily. Only with the cooperation of motorists can we reduce the risk and keep our children from death and injury."

The club president pointed out that in Illinois the law applies even where a parkway separates the opposing lanes of traffic. However, in Indiana the motorist need not stop if the opposing traffic lanes have a parkway or a dividing strip unimproved for travel 20 feet or more wide. But the law provides that the motorist must "proceed with due caution for the safety of the children."

Apart from the legal side, motorists must remember that school children are unpredictable. In their eagerness to get to classes or back home, they are apt to dash into the path of an auto. It's up to the motorist to stay alert and avoid striking them.

"Children are America's stake in the future—your children and your neighbors. Let's help keep them safe," Hayes said.

Hog Supply Topic for Outlook Meet Sept. 17 At Grayslake School

Following a bad hog year in 1953, farmers cut pig numbers in 1953. The result was that hog producers had one of their best years. Although hog numbers are going up again, 1954 will also be a good year.

But what effect will the continued buildup in hog population have on your next year's operation? This is one of the "hot" questions in farming to be talked over at the Lake County livestock outlook meeting, which will be held at 8 p. m. Friday, Sept. 17, in the high school in Grayslake.

These men will report facts found through the nation-wide reporting facilities of the U. S. and State Departments of Agriculture and from daily contact with livestock markets. And, according to Farm Adviser Ray T. Nicholas, they'll help to explain them in terms of what these facts mean to farmers in Lake county.

It's a meeting, he says, you can't afford to miss if you have very much money riding on your livestock operations.

THANKS

We wish to thank Mr. Story and helper, Herman Holbek, Loren D. Sexauer and all of our neighbors and friends who gave us a helping hand during our recent accident at the store.

Library News

To celebrate the three hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Society of Friends, Howard Brinton, a leading Quaker educator, has written "Friends for 300 Years." This interesting chronicle of one of the less well-known of the Protestant faiths traces the evolution of Quaker beliefs from the time George Fox started the movement up to the present time. Of especial interest to a generation which has seen so much of war, the doctrine of non-violence is carefully explained.

The Overstreet—husband and wife—have, individually and together written several fine books explaining man and his psychological relation to himself and the rest of the word which have achieved best seller status. "The Great Enterprise," by H. A. Overstreet, and "Understanding Fear," by Bonaro Overstreet, are now available at the Antioch Township Library. All of the above books were presented to the library in memory of Mrs. Henry Grimm.

Paul Brinkhill, in "Reach for the Sky," tells the story of Douglas Bader who lost both legs in an air crash in 1931 but fought his way back to become one of the great heroes of the battle of Britain. Determined to make no concessions to his disability, Douglas Bader mastered the use of artificial legs and succeeded in playing golf and tennis, flying a plane, and dancing. The book is the story of a man's indomitable spirit. "Reach for the Sky" was presented to the library in memory of Mrs. E. A. Knickelbein.

United States Storehouse for Shakespeareana

WASHINGTON—William Shakespeare made scant reference to the New World in his dramas, but today he would find America a treasure house of his work.

The largest collection of Shakespeareana in the world reposes in Washington's Folger Shakespeare Memorial Library. Of 238 copies of the famed first folio edition of the dramatist's plays known to exist, half are estimated to be in this country.

Recent gifts to the University of Illinois and to West Chester State Teachers College in Pennsylvania have enriched Shakespeare collections in U. S. institutions of learning. Eight American colleges now own valuable folios in which the playwright's collected works were published in 1623 for the first time.

Founded by the late Henry C. Folger, oil company president who spent some $4.5 million on Shakespeare items, and administered by the trustees of Amherst College the Folger Library is a "kit of tools for the study of Shakespeare," as Mr. Folger put it. The library houses the bard's works, source books, allusions to him, criticism of him and material on the history of the Shakespearean stage.

Possessing the largest collection of 16th and 17th century English books in the Western Hemisphere, the Folger also has a record number of editions of Shakespeare's works, including 79 first folios, every known 18th century edition and many 19th century printings.

Regular Walking Arthritis Therapy

NEW YORK—Arthritis could be stopped in its tracks if the victims of this crippling disease would discard their "wheel-chair mentality," new medical findings indicate.

Countless thousands of arthritic persons not only suffer needlessly, but allow their condition to deteriorate when they fail to practice the simple therapy of regular walking, says Dr. Samuel Rosoff, well-known New York pediatricist.

Dr. Rosoff said that examination of hundreds of arthritic patients disclosed that the ailment can be arrested and physical vigor restored by "keeping the feet in motion—an activity which prevents the locking effect of adhesions between the toes and the articular surfaces." He said that a 15 to 20 minute walk every day was "remarkably effective" as a therapy for regaining muscle tone and achieving realignment of bone structure in the arthritic person. He warned against "weak imitations" of the therapy, such as the substitution of a Saturday afternoon round of golf for a routine daily walk.

The therapy produces good results, he said, under condition that the feet are exercised in a "healthy environment," which he defined as properly fitted shoes.

Border Marriage May End Separation

DETROIT—A wedding without a honeymoon took place recently when two German immigrants spoke their marriage vows at the International boundary on the Ambassador Bridge, connecting Detroit and Windsor, Ontario.

After the ceremony, Herbert B. Riedel, 38, went back to Windsor, where he is a hospital orderly. The former Mrs. Valeria M. Unger, 40, returned to Chicago, where she works for a meat packing company.

Riedel has been unable to come to the United States because quotas have been filled. Mrs. Riedel, who has a son by a previous marriage, went to Chicago in March, 1953. Now the two are hoping the marriage will shorten his separation from his bride, and allow them to be together for a honeymoon.

Row Over Ownership Of Penny Costs $35

LONDON—A fight that started over a penny led two women to court in Britain recently, the London Daily Express reported.

The quarrel started when the son of one of the women found the coin. The second woman charged it had been stolen from her son. The fight resulted in severe damage to the clothing of both women. Each presented a bill for damages to the other. Both claims totaled $85.20.

A judge awarded damages of $35 to the woman whose son had found the coin.

Anniversary

MADEIRA, France—Pierette Lenoury observed her 10th birthday in June. She was born in this little village, six miles from Utah Beach, just as the first United States paratroopers dropped for the invasion of Normandy. Her first cries were drowned by the roaring bombardment and her home was wrecked in a few hours, but she survived.

Scouters Round Table Held at Gavin School For Northwest District

The first Northwest Dist. Scouters' Round table of the 1954-55 season was held at the Gavin school, Ingleside last evening.

This season for the first time, the entire scouting family held its round tables at the same night and at the same location. Separate and distinct programs were presented for the three branches of scouting, cubs, scouts and explorers. The purpose of this plan was to reduce the number of evenings that scouters who serve more than one unit will have to spend away from home.

While all scouters and interested persons were welcome, it was essential that the following be present: From the Cub packs, all cubmasters, assistants, pack committee-men, den dads, and den mothers.

From the scout troops, all scoutmasters, assistants, troop committee-men.

From explorer units, explorer advisers, assistants, post committee-men, and all key young men officers.

The meeting opened with a joint ceremony. The groups then separated for their individual discussions, and reassembled at 9:30 for announcements, closing ceremony and refreshments.

A strong dynamic program was planned for the coming season, and the cooperation of every Scouter is needed to achieve the goals set up for the Northwest District.

Methodist Circle Will Have Chicago Woman Discuss Decorations

Plans are being made by the Evening Circle of the Methodist church to bring Mrs. Gertrude Kell of Chicago to Antioch the evening of Tuesday, Nov. 2 to give a public demonstration on the making of original decorations.

Mrs. Xavier Schimmel is in charge of arrangements for the program which will also be a social gathering for which tickets will be sold.

The Circle was entertained last Thursday evening at the Louis Schaefer home.

Events of the World Council of Churches meetings at Evanston were reported. Mrs. Howard Benson discussed the humorous incidents as well as the speeches of the conference. Mrs. Warren Polley described the Festival of Faith, and Mrs. Richard Scott told of the art exhibit and the pageant, "Waters of Babylon."

Mrs. Ed Strang gave the devotions.

Women of the Moose, Chapter 735, have noted that the names of two members initiated recently were incorrectly announced. The correct names are Mrs. Joseph Sterbenz and Mrs. Donald Gaa.

Herbert Savage, 83, Former Resident of Antioch Dies Tuesday

Herbert Savage, 83, brother of the late Mrs. Sol LaPlant of Antioch passed away Tuesday at his home in Wausaukee, Wis., following eight years of illness. He was born Jan. 16, 1871, in Antioch.

Mr. Savage was united in marriage to Miss Maude Crittenden, afterward moving to Wausaukee, in 1937, where he made his home since that time. He was a member of the Church of Christ in that city.

Survivors are his second wife, Theresa, two sons, George of Winthrop Harbor and Ira of Waukegan, two daughters, Mrs. Mary Ingard of Antioch and Mrs. Vera Meeks of Chicago; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Jack Forst of Wausaukee and seven grandchildren. Four brothers and five sisters preceded him in death. Funeral services were held at the Church of Christ in Wausaukee, burial was in Evergreen cemetery in that city.

Bowmen to Shoot on Sept. 19

The next shoot of the Northern Illinois Bowmen will be an invitational Broadhead on Sept. 19 at the field range at McHenry. Spectators may attend. Crystal Lake, McHenry and Fox Lake residents won the handicap shoot Sunday, Sept. 5.

Dismiss Primary Units at 2:30
Primary grades at Antioch Consolidated Grade school are dismissed at 2:30 p. m. this year so that the buses can be operated on a double shift. The lunch period has been shortened which Supt. Richard Whitaker says makes possible the usual time for classes. Upper grades are dismissed at 3:20 p. m. and by that time the buses have returned from the first delivery.

Four-Way Stops Posted

Four-way stop signs have been established at Rte. 173 and Rte. 21 and at Rte. 173 and Rte. 59 both south of the village. The change will not bother strangers much, but it will bother local people who have been used to the right of way on the north and south roads.

Hojem President of Club

John Hojem has been made president of the Channel Lake Community Club, assuming the office when last year's elected president was unable to serve. A vice president is yet to be chosen. It was announced that open house for the new addition to the school has been set for Oct. 10.
